

Introduction

Turas is a community based addiction service located in Dundalk. We are looking for an experienced fundraiser to lead and grow our fundraising programme to grow, diversify and supplement our current income streams. This position provides an exciting opportunity for an experienced fundraiser who will be supported in the role by the Manager of Turas.

Job Description

Fundraising Manager (Corporate and online)

Reporting to: Service Manager

Salary: €49, 041k HSE Grade VII

Hours: 25 hours (with flexibility regarding when they are worked with some evening and weekend work required)

Contract: 2 years

Base: After initial induction in the office we are open to remote working as much as is practicable

Main duties:

Build on existing supporters and relationships and secure ongoing support via individual events

Create new fundraising partnerships and links with Dundalk related local and regional businesses

Establish a solid online and social media presence leading to people doing events for Turas

Build an online community via stories, video and imagery to generate awareness of Turas and its work

Create integrated campaigns alongside annual events

Manage and coordinate an annual event

Own transport required. Mileage rates apply

Person Specification:

- At least 5 years in a fundraising role

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills including the ability to write compelling cases for support
- Strong networking skills
- A proven track record in identifying prospective corporate partners/donors and building and maintain relationships with them
- Creative and skilled in your approach to building online content for audience building
- Demonstrated experience in building donor bases via online and digital fundraising
- Confidence working independently and driving projects from beginning to end

Please submit a tailored cover letter and CV to Maureen.zeltner@turascounselling.ie

Closing date for application is 5pm on April 14th.